The Event

En route to Chicago, nurses will travel in a luxury motor coach while enjoying a continental breakfast and learning from outstanding presenters on current nursing topics.

Once we arrive in the heart of downtown, you will have the entire day to experience all that Chicago has to offer – shopping on the Miracle Mile, sightseeing, visiting one of the museums, the theater and dining in fabulous restaurants.

On the way home you can sit back and relax, enjoy a snack and another great continuing education.

Workshop Objectives

- Discuss current pain management issues and the role of nurses in effectively managing pain.
- Explore current nursing practice issues using lessons from Florence Nightingale.
- Discuss importance of mentoring in the development of your career .

The Schedule

Registration 6:30 am. The bus will leave LCC promptly at 7:00 am and return to LCC by 11:00 pm.

Please park in the LCC Gannon parking ramp – enter from Grand Ave. http://lcc.edu/parking/parking_locations/ Please arrive at least 15 minutes prior to departure at the HHS building First floor lobby to check in, get your boxed continental breakfast and hot beverage and board the bus which will be in the driveway adjacent to the HHS building.
